

JOLT - Qualification Rubric

Scale	1	2	3	4	5	Score
	Demonstrates little or no ability	Demonstrates some ability	Demonstrates average ability	Demonstrates above average ability	Demonstrates higher than expected ability

Students who are successful online learners are students who...

1	are comfortable in an environment that places emphasis on individuals who take responsibility for their own learning.
2	are comfortable waiting up to 24 hours for a response to questions.
3	are organized, self-disciplined, and goal-oriented.
4	can glean information from texts and online materials to apply to the work assigned.
5	demonstrate basic Word skills, including proficiency in sending and receiving emails with attachments, cutting, and pasting.
6	are able to manage the expectations of the course.
7	meet deadlines consistently
8	identify solutions for unexpected and potential obstacles through problem-solving.
9	exhibit respect for the classroom environment, fellow classmates, and instructor and communicates accordingly.
10	exhibit good listening and processing skills.
11	are self-advocates.
12	are not afraid to ask questions.
13	are able to work independently with little redirection.
14	have not previously failed in an online environment.
15	study the lessons and prepare for assessments.
16	are proficient writers.
17	accept critical thinking and decision making as part of the learning process.
18	are independent, motivated, responsible and mature learners.

Application Evaluation Form

Student

Acceptance Scale
75-90	Excellent candidate - Accepted
60-74	Good candidate - Accepted
45-59	Future candidate - not accepted at this time
0-44	Poor candidate - Not accepted at this time

JOLT - Advisory member evaluator signature
JOLT Director
Counselor
Principal
Teacher
Intervention Spec

Has been accepted
Has NOT been accepted

Parent Signature

Student Signature